

Table Of Contents

COVER STORY

6 Looking Back on 25 Years of Pennsylvania Homeschoolers

Susan Richman reflects on a quarter century of publishing the newsletter. Plus: A timeline, and excerpts of the best articles from past issues!

FEATURES

5 Proposals in Harrisburg to Reduce Cyber-Charter Funding

Howard Richman alerts you to legislation designed to cut funds for cyber-charter schools.

14 Tributes to Dad

We continue to feature articles honoring the father's role in homeschooling programs. Plus: a father's view on homeschooling and clean socks (from the archives)!

25 There is a Silver Lining

From the archives: Ellen Serra reflects on how even losing your temper can be a learning experience.

28 There is Life after Homeschooling!

Longterm homeschooler Shay Jones shares the way her teaching has grown in scope since her last child graduated.

31 Simplify Your Life

From the archives: cut out the 'rat race', and achieve harmony while homeschooling.

COLUMNS

24 First Steps: More Teachers

Patricia Richman considers the ways that outside teachers can enrich her homeschooling program.

26 Whatz-Up With Special Needs: Accessing Therapeutic Services

Educational psychologist, evaluator and author Barbara McMillan guides you through the process of getting the support you need to homeschool a special needs child.

30 Graduation and Beyond: Dream

A PHAA graduate follows her dream to hike the entire Appalachian trail, and her parents learn to let go.

IN SHORT

29 Archery is Hot!

Consider archery as a route to physical fitness and character development.

IN EVERY ISSUE

2 Letter from the Editor

4 Notebook

16 Math by Kids

17 The Backpack

21 Kids & Grads Did It

22 Competition Info

33 Qualified Evaluators

36 Calendar

See fall testing info on page 32